

Application to End Interim Bar

For use by a disability worker screening applicant to apply to end an interim bar.

Who can complete this form?

A disability worker screening applicant who has any of the following applications in progress and has been issued an interim bar:

- NDIS worker screening clearance
- Queensland disability worker screening clearance

Are you eligible to apply to end your interim bar?

You are only eligible to make this application if your interim bar has been in effect for at least 6 months.

How to complete this form?

- This form can only be completed by a disability worker screening applicant who has had an interim bar placed on their application
- Please print clearly, use BLOCK letters and indicate with a tick where required
- Delays in processing this form will occur if you do not complete it correctly

All sections marked with ▲ MUST be completed or your application can not be processed.

How will you use my information?

Your information will be used in accordance with the Disability Worker Screening Privacy Notice and Information Management Policy.

What happens next?

Your application to end your interim bar will be considered by the Department of Child Safety, Seniors and Disability Services. Your application may not be decided if:

- A charge against you for an offence has not been dealt with; or
- There is an incident involving you, or an allegation or complaint about your conduct, relevant to whether you pose a risk of harm to people with disability that is being investigated and the investigation has not ended.

If your application is refused, you will be notified in writing.

You will be contacted if any further information is required from you to assess your application and notice of the outcome will be provided to you.
